Farm Bureau Notes

Announcements

The ladies of Marion are requested to donate dishes of potato salad as well as the farmers' wives of the county.

More animals to barbecue are needed and every one who has not furnished a carcass and can possibly do so are urged to get in touch with James Alex Hill. Animals are to be delivered Monday; those south of town to Will Crider's farm on the Crayne road and all others to the stock pen at the Marion Mill.

Let's have every one in Crittenden county get behind this monster barbecue.

Sheep Campaigns

Farmers of Crittenden county are to receive special help with their sheep problems from August 1 to August 5 according to County Agent Spencer who announced today that a sheep culling campaign would be held in the county during that time by the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture which is cooperating with him in the work. The object of the campaign will be to help farmers select those sheep from their flock which are the most profitable both from the wool and lamb production standpoint and to suggest methods of raising that will improve the flocks of the county.

A number of community meetings will be arranged at which time R. C. Miller, who is in charge of the campaign, will discuss problems of sheep raising with the farmers. Moving picture films and lantern slides will be used to illustrate the lectures. The day following the night meeting a demonstration will be conducted at some farm in the community to show farmers how to distinguish between profitable and unprofitable animals in their sheep. County Agent Spencer announced that four night meetings and five demonstrations would be held. Dates will be given next week.

A schedule of farms on which the poultry culling demonstrations for Crittenden county farmers and their wives will be conducted July 28 and 29th by County Agent Spencer in cooperation with the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture is as follows:

Thursday July 28 8:30 at J. A. Fowler's farm at Chapel Hill; 10:15 W. E. Crace's farm on Crayne road; 2:00 J. B. Carter's farm on Salem road; 4:00 Pres Belts farm at Cisco chapel.

Friday July 29th 8:30 Henry Holman's farm near Brown School; 10:15 W. L. Terry's farm at Forest Grove; 2:00 Ben F. Drennan's farm near Deanwood.

Farmers in the vicinity of the various farms will meet there at which time specialists from the poultry department of the college will assist County Agent Spencer in demonstrating to farmers and their wives the difference between the loafing and the heavy laying hen. Birds of both types will be selected from the flock on the farm and the details of culling explained so that the farmers and their wives can go home and pick out the unprofitable hens from their own flock. Circulars will be distributed outlining in detail the difference between the hen that is a heavy producer of eggs and the one that loafs from now until next spring.

This is only the start of the culling work in Crittenden county as it will be carried on by the County Agent. Farmers interested in this work are urged to get in touch with him so that further demonstrations may be arranged.

Rev. G. P. Dillon returned from Hodgenville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of Princeton returned home Monday after spending a few days in Marion. Clyde Ramage of this city went to Madisonville Monday.

Joe Hunter of Princeton was in the city Tuesday.

Messrs. Charles Cassidy and Geo. Gumbert spent a few days this week at James Lake near Salem.

Misses Elizabeth Dollar and Irene Daughtrey of this city are visiting Miss Ruby Gahagen at Weston.

Mr. J. R. Summerville killed a large ground hog in his back yard on Depot Street Monday afternoon.

J. H. Nimmo went to Tolu last week. On his return to Marion he came to the Press office and reported

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR BIG BARBECUE

Arrangements for the big free barbecue to be held next Wednesday July 27 in Marion, under the auspices of the Crittenden County Farm Bureau and the Marion Business Mens Association, are being completed rapidly. The farmers through the efforts of the Committee on Pledging Carcasses and members of the Farm Bureau, are donating carcasses for the occasion. The business men's association, through the various committees are doing their part in providing bread, pickles, preparing the grounds; dressing and barbecuing the meat and meeting all other numerous expenses of the day. This Association has secured a brass band to furnish music for the day.

The farmers' wives and the ladies of Marion are asked to furnish a dish of potato salad for the occasion. More animals are needed and every one who can furnish a carcass and can possibly do so are requested to get in touch with some member of the Pledging Committee.

The Entertainment Committee has arranged to have Geoffrey Morgan, Secretary of State Farm Bureau, to address the people. Mr. Morgan is a speaker worth going miles to hear. Mr. M. Hughes of the State College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky, will also be present and make an address. In addition to these men, local prominent men will deliver addresses appropriate to the occasion. Other entertainments are being provided for.

Come out and bring your family and we will make this one of Crittenden County's red letter days for The Crittenden County Farm Bureau.

WHEELER MAKES HIS DEBUT AT RICKWOOD WITH VICTORY

According to the Birmingham Age-Herald, Floyd Wheeler, the latest acquisition to the Bar-Horn hurling staff, made his debut as a local moundman in the final game against the Neogans. His bow before the local fans was impressive. His side arm delivery proved quite puzzling to his opponents and for six frames he held them to a couple of safe blows. Then with a commanding lead standing him in good stead Wheeler got a bit careless in the seventh and allowed five hits. Those five netted two runs.

In spite of the maddly condition of the grounds the contest was a fast one, it took only one hour and thirty three minutes to stage the game.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!

I have leased the mine near Nunn's Switch, which was operated by the R. M. Jenkins Coal Co. last year and I began mining out coal today and will aim to keep plenty of coal on the tippie to supply all wagon trade without any delay in getting loads. Forked lump coal lots cash. No accounts opened.

Quarters for teams and haulers who prefer coming at night.

J. L. F. Paris, County Supt.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

In a little shady dell at the foot of the Todor hills near the old Arch Walker place, on Sunday morning, the people of the Bells Mines and Rodney sections began gathering and kept on until there was a large number of men, women and children assembled, laughing talking and having a general social time. Near at hand was a long improvised table, a barrel of ice water and gallons of lemonade. About the noon hour the good women of the community assisted the hostess, Mrs. Virginia Price, to load the table with good things to eat. When they announced "It is ready" we gathered around and found a feast that would satisfy the most fastidious tastes or appetites.

After the lunch we had our pictures made, sang and talked and then we had ice cream. Surely everyone present had a good time. Some of the oldest present were Uncle Billie Hamilton, Uncle Dan King and Uncle Sam Dempsey.

If you had inquired what had occasioned this gathering and general good time you would have been informed that it was the thirty-ninth anniversary of the birthday of Mrs. Price, wife of Milton Price, who lives near the above place. Mrs. and Mr. Price formerly were citizens of Henderson county, but have come to make their home in Crittenden. We are glad they chose to live in our section because we are always glad to have accessions to our community who will add rather than take away from the social and religious functions of the neighborhood.

Long may this good family to make things better around them.

Yours very truly, E. J. T.

SMALL BLAZE

Wednesday morning about 11:30, a coal-oil stove at the residence of C. A. Daughtrey on E. Depot Street, burst into flames nearly causing a serious fire. Mrs. Daughtrey was in the kitchen cooking dinner when the stove caught fire. She called to some of the neighbors and with their prompt assistance succeeded in extinguishing the flames before the fire truck arrived.

CAMPING TRIP

Misses Elrah Pickens, Jeanene Minner, Elizabeth Rochester and Virginia Flannery and Messrs. Ira T. Pierce, Doyle Vaughn, Jake Mayes and Raymond Small left Monday to spend several days at the Kuttawa Lake. They went over in a truck and will return Friday.

Esq. J. M. McCaslin of Crayne, was in Marion Wednesday.

FORMER RESIDENT INJURED IN ACCIDENT

W. L. Adams, formerly of this place, but now located at Zillah, Washington happened to a serious accident recently. Of the accident the Zillah Mirror says:

Postmaster W. L. Adams, Mrs. Adams and several members of the family had a very narrow escape last Monday evening while motoring to the Post Office to check out the east bound evening mail. The steering gear of the car broke, the front wheels struck a rock in the road and the car swerved violently into a ditch.

Mrs. Adams was pinned under the auto and was not released from her perilous position until Mr. Adams summoned help. In this accident Mrs. Adams sustained a broken right arm and a sprained wrist besides several bruises about the head and body.

Miss Mabel Adams, who assists the post master in the office sustained a dislocated collar bone. Mr. Adams received an ugly gash across the back of the right hand and a broken rib. Houston Adams was cut about the mouth and cheek and suffered a badly bruised hip. Grace Adams was slightly bruised about the head and body.

MARION WINS IN NINTH

The Marion Reds defeated Kuttawa on the home lot Wednesday afternoon to the tune of 6 to 5. Marion made four runs in the last half of the ninth. A small crowd attended the game and the team just about broke even on the expenses.

Kuttawa made two runs in the third inning and two more in the fifth. The Reds registered their first tally in the sixth frame and though runners got as far as third they were unable to score again before the ninth. In this inning Jimmy Kinsey, with two men on and one man gone, knocked the ball in his favorite spot over the ditch and scored the runners and himself on a couple of wild throws. This tied the score. Homer McConnell followed with a single and scored the winning run on Lamb's long hit to center field.

Kinsey pitched for the local team and did excellent work and was well supported, there being very little rained fielding. Claud Guess did some good hitting.

As a whole Kuttawa had the hardest hitting team of the two and only lost the game because of a "blow-up" in the ninth.

R. F. WHEELER'S GROCERY TO OPEN IN NEW LOCATION

The grocery of R. F. Wheeler, which was destroyed by the fire last January, will be opened in its new location in the Frisbie Building, recently completed, the opening day being set for Wednesday July 27. Mr. Wheeler was one of the many business men who were burned out in the January fire.

Mr. Wheeler is now laying in a new stock of groceries and will have an up-to-date grocery to be opened next Wednesday.

GRAVEYARD CLEANING AT REPTON

There will be a grave-yard cleaning at Repton Cemetery Friday, August 5, preaching in the afternoon by Rev. J. B. King. Everybody interested come and bring tools and dinner. G. D. BRANTLEY, Committee.

Two big events to be pulled off in Marion on the 27th. Wheeler's opening and the free barbecue.

PROHIBITION ON TRIAL A WARNING TO THE VOTERS

There is just now an effort being made to convince the voters that the Liquor question has been settled and there is no longer any necessity to consider the matter when we go to cast our ballots. The boot-leggers and the liquor men are organized and before we cast our votes in the coming general election we had better find out who the liquor people are supporting, they always know just who they can depend on to permit them to violate the laws against the liquor traffic and go unpunished and they will all be found working for the candidates that they can depend upon. We who favor the enforcement of the laws should get our heads together and support only men whom we can depend upon to faithfully do their duty and we should be ware of those who have always represented the liquor interest and who now claim that they have recently changed. The good women should be sure before they cast their votes that the candidate for public office has been and is yet in favor of prohibition and the strict enforcement of the prohibition laws and if we fail we can rest assured that the prohibition question is not settled or at least will not stay settled. In the interest of our boys and girls and in the interest of the Master's cause let's do our duty at the coming election.

JAMES F. PRICE

NOTED READER HERE FRIDAY

Miss Margarette J. Penick, of Boston Mass., will give the play "Peg O' My Heart" Friday evening at the School Auditorium under the auspices of the Womens Club.

OP

Little Eva Evelyn Guess, the little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Guess was born June 8, 1921 and on Sunday night June 26. Her stay on earth was short being only two weeks and four days. But the time was long enough to win the love. A sweet little life to be missed so much and to make home homesome without her presence, a precious tiny bud that was budded on earth to bloom in Heaven. But Jesus said suffer little children to come unto me for such is the Kingdom of Heaven. I would say to the bereaved ones to weep not but live in a way to meet her some day on the happy Golden Shore. She has gone back to the God that gave her. Sleep baby till we meet thee one by one. The funeral was conducted by Broth F. L. McDowell of Marion Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the presence of a number of sorrowing friends and relatives and the tiny little body was placed away in Piney Fork Cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn.
